

- i. Provision of coordination- boundary spanning leadership*¹
- ii. Implementation of soft interventions *^{1, *2}
- iii. Advisory/technical service provision*¹
- iv. Supporting through financial means*^{1, *2}

- i. Structures for decision making*²
- ii. Creating conditions to generate and empower public wisdom*⁵
- iii. Understanding power and participation cross-culturally*³
- iv. Actively cooperating on the realisation of shared goals *¹

- i. Understanding, harnessing & supporting existing community competence*^{6, *7}
- ii. Building recovery & preparedness knowledge and experience through training and skills development
- iii. Supporting active community groups through practical human resource support
- iv. Strengthening Social Capital, Community Networks*¹⁰

- i. Building generative/constructive intra and inter-organisational culture*⁸
- ii. Creating a sustainable recovery workforce*⁹
- iii. Creating facilitative legal frameworks or adjustments *^{1, *2}
- iv. Enhancing facilitative policy and political institutional environment *¹

- i. Respect
- ii. Competence
- iii. Personal regard
- iv. Integrity

Enablers supporting COMMUNITY-LED recovery, before, during and after disaster

The National Principles for Disaster Recovery including information and communication are taken as integral to all aspects

*¹ Igalla, et al, 2019
 *² McLennan, 2018
 *³ House, et al, 2004
 *⁴ Bryk & Schneider, 2002
 *⁵ Atlee 2012
 *⁶ Norris et al, 2008
 *⁷ Leadbeater 2013
 *⁸ Stacey, 2011
 *⁹ Pagram 2011
 *¹⁰ Aldrich & Meyer, 2014